

The Northwest Horn Society
Minutes of meeting on May 20,2007
Boise State University
Boise, Idaho

The meeting was called to order at 9am.

Attending were: Jeffrey Snedeker, David Saunders, Jennifer Scriggins Brummett, Kathleen Vaught Farner, Robert Dickow, Steve Sherer, Max Beardon, John Halvorson, And unidentified members at large.

David Saunders was congratulated for the success of the Northwest Horn Symposium that was held May 18-20 , 2007. 99 horn enthusiasts attended the Symposium at Boise State University.

There was a motion to discontinue annual dues for the NwHS and ask for donations to cover the cost of the newsletter. The motion was discussed and passed.

There was a motion to expand the mailing of the NwHS newsletter to all International Horn Society members and any horn enthusiast in the Northwest. The motion was discussed and passed.

Steven Sherer volunteered to assist the NwHS in it's application for Articles of Corporation. Steve and Kathleen Farner will work on this project.

Max Beardon explained the process he went through to gain corporate sponsors for student scholarships to the Horn Symposium in Boise.

Jennifer Scriggins Brummett announced that she will turn over the duties of Editor of the newsletter to Lydia VanDreel in the fall of 2007.

Kathleen Vaught Farner has resigned as Washington Area Representative to the International Horn Society. Jennifer Scriggins Brummett will be the new Washington State rep to the International Horn Society.

The meeting was adjourned at 10am

Submitted by Kathleen Vaught Farner